

Marnix van Stiphout

Chief operations officer
Member Management Board Banking

Born in 1970
Dutch nationality

Profile

Marnix van Stiphout is chief operations officer (COO) and member of the Management Board Banking since September 2021. Marnix is responsible for translating, overseeing and implementing ING's strategies into a strategy for the operations function.

Most important other ancillary positions

None.

Education

Marnix holds a master's degree in economics from Vrije Universiteit (VU) Amsterdam and a master's degree in financial economics from London Metropolitan University.

Career

2021-present	1 September 2021 member Management Board Banking.
2020-2021	COO ING Retail Banking.
2014-2020	COO ING Wholesale Banking.
2013	Head of ING Wholesale Banking Financial Markets (Netherlands).
2012-2013	Head of ING Wholesale Banking Value Chains.
2008-2012	Head of ING Wholesale Banking Value Chain Management Financial Markets.
1998-2008	Several positions ING Wholesale Banking Global Equity Markets.
1996-1998	Investor Relations Consultancy, Johnson & Company.