

Daniele Tonella

- Member Management Board Banking
  - Chief technology officer
- Born 1971
Nationality Swiss

Profile

Daniele began his career in 1998 at Mercer Management Consulting and eventually moved to McKinsey & Company. In 2002, he joined Swiss Life AG in Zurich, holding numerous responsibilities, including Chief Information & Technology Officer from 2009. In 2012, Daniele became the Global CIO of Evalueserve, and in 2013 he took over the CEO role at AXA Technology Services in Paris.

In 2017, Daniele was appointed CEO of UniCredit Services to which he later added the Group Chief Information Officer responsibility. In 2020, he became the ad interim Group Chief Digital and Information Officer, joining the Group Executive Committee before leaving UniCredit in December 2021.

Daniele is currently engaged as Board Member in the technology area and as Senior Advisor to VCs and their portfolio companies.

Education

Daniele holds an engineering MSc from the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich (ETHZ) and completed various executive education programmes at Harvard, IMD, INSEAD and MIT Sloan.

Career

2024	ING, member Management Board Banking and chief technology officer (5 August)
2021	Various technical advisor and board member positions for several companies e.g. ELCA Group, Swish ai, Avalia systems
2017	UniCredit, Italy, various positions including as CEO UniCredit services and as group CIO
2013	AXA Technology Services, France, CEO
2012	Evalueserve, Switzerland, global CIO
2002	Swiss life, Switzerland, various positions including CIO and head of IT and Operations
2000	Mckinsey & Company, Switzerland, associate
1998	Mercer Management Consulting, Switzerland, consultant